A MESSAGE FROM THE PRIME MINISTER

To Whom It May Concern:

This audit marks the end of an era for the Barony of Seven Sleeping Dragons – specifically, my term in office. I have spent nearly my entire Amtgard career doing this job, and I have, apparently, learned nothing: I’m leaving this office to assume the position of Prime Minister of Westmarch. With this in mind, I’m making an attempt to make an easily editable template for my successors to use for their audits. We’ll see how well it works.

In news unrelated to changes in local office, the last six months have been fairly unremarkable for my little Barony. Our attendance has fluctuated, as it usually does, but we have managed to acquire several new stable members. Some of them are, in fact, running for office – I’m going to be the last of the old guard to leave office. The inmates are finally running the asylum, and it’s going well.

So, without further ado, let’s get on with the actual audit.

Sincerely,
Griffin Köford
Prime Minister, Barony of Seven Sleeping Dragons

FINANCIAL DATA: INTRODUCTION

As this is my last crack at this for a while, I'm going to try to be clear about our financial situation. The first set of attachments is quite simple: It is simply a copy of our ledger for the last three years. This money is stored in a cash box.

Our financial situation gets complicated when we get to our "account" with Associated Students Incorporated (ASI) – the student club arm of our associated university, California Polytechnic San Luis Obispo. This is not a bank account as such: Any money we wish to withdraw can only be in the form of reimbursements, never as actual cash. Because of this, we do not actually bank with ASI. However, as we are allotted a fairly substantial amount of money every year through ASI, we do reimburse our members for club-related spending. Meals at Darkshore, loaner weapon materials, document mailing, and similar items have been paid for by ASI over the years.

RECRUITMENT EFFORTS

Our most powerful recruitment tool has, for many years, been our location. A short while before we became a Barony, we moved from our battlegame-friendly location on campus to a site with very few redeeming factors other than visibility. The drinking fountains are inefficient and well hidden, the bathrooms are pretty bad, and yelling taunts at us has become something of a local sport as people pass by on the adjacent road – Highway 1. Of course, in addition to the hecklers, we also get an astonishing number of walk-up recruits. Some even do both. In addition to this, we also have annual demos at Cal Poly events and at Polycon, the local annual gaming convention. We also have a few irregular demos at various locations, a website, and, to top it all off, various attractive and colorful flyers, such as the one reproduced in miniature on this page.

SIGN-IN SHEETS: INTRODUCTION

This is, as far as I can recall, my first completely clean run of sign-in sheets. There are sheets that don't exist, true, but they all fail to exist for a perfectly good reason: We didn't meet locally on the days in question. The first of these gaps was on January 23rd for Westmarch's Midreign. The second was on February 6th – since I dislocated my right knee on the field, we've been canceling meetings if it looks like it's going to be raining. It wasn't raining much on the day in question, but the week leading up to it was wet enough that the meeting was cancelled. The weekly email read as follows:

Hello everybody!

This Saturday we will sadly not be meeting due to inclement weather.

Take this free time to read up on westmarch's rules of play or Corpora. (<http://www.caamtgard.com/>) under documents!

Maybe even to enhance or create new Amtgard equipment for our nearing Westmarch events.

With this in mind, don't forget to read up on upcoming events (SKBC/Darkshore) that include SSD. (<http://www.caamtgard.com/>) under forum, within upcoming events!!

Lastly, please keep in mind that we will be doing an Amtgard styled fundraiser for Haiti during one of our upcoming Saturday meets!

I Hope to see you all soon,

-Baron Cronin of SSD

The end of February saw us unable to sign in at our regular field because everybody we could hope to drag out of town was at Sword Knight Boot Camp. Westmarch Quals on the 3rd of April claimed enough of our membership that there wasn't much of a meeting left, and, as a result, there is no sign-in sheet. May 8th was Darkshore weekend. The Rebellion event at Crimson Wood claimed a few of our members, but there was still a fair showing at the field.

The final odd day was the 26th of June. We did not have a normal meeting that day, as we were instead running a demo at Polycon. This event rarely generates much in an increase in numbers, but it has been responsible for the recruitment of our two longest standing members, our current champion, and our outgoing Prime Minister – me. It seems worthwhile.

On the following summary page, the average sign-ins noted in parentheses factor in days without sign-in sheets. Traveling members are not included in any of the averages. The complete appended pile of sign-in sheets also includes demos and fighter practices, neither of which are included in the summarized totals.
