Letter to the BoD

To the Board of Directors of Westmarch and Dragonspine:

Greetings and health and sincere respect. I hope this letter and this audit reaches you on a fair night without vexation.

Another six months, another audit. Once again it is my pleasure to provide to you the accumulated documents from the Duchy of Wavehaven from the past six months. I am proud to say our land continues to practice the traditions of Amtgard in the crazy world of California.

The land has managed to sustain itself over the months. In fact, we have even seen a slight growth during the past two months. We have several new members who continue to grow, and some old faces returning to the field and trying to shake some of that rust off. We, of course, accommodate the rust shaking with a healthy re-introduction to the Wavehaven school of fighting. Progress has been made to improve the quality and quantity of our battle-games, undoing some of the damage of a year or so of indifference to the more "flurby" aspect of our game.

The best part of the past six months has to be by far-and-large the month of May. Anyone who knows anything of California Amtgard knows that May means Darkshore. This year was the thirteenth installment of our little event. The theme as chosen by our Autocrat, Regent Ted, was a monster-versus-heros, horror flick spin. Despite the fact that we had to change the weekend that the event fell on, we still pulled in 113 sign-ins.

The crowning event at Darkshore was Saturday night court led by the devilishly handsome Prince Deimos and the knighting of Dame Gwendair Tryst; a well deserved accolade for one of my absolute favorite people. I do not think anything more need be said.

All said and done, this, my second audit for my home land, finds the Duchy of Wavehaven in excellent standing and health. Please continue to read the following pages to find in its entirety the audit for the Duchy of Wavehaven during the January to June period of 2010.

Thank you.

In service,

Has Jana

Note about the audits: I conducted two audits of our financial data. In doing so, I unearthed a couple of accounting errors and what appeared to be unpaid debts that were entered into the ledger. After hunting down, correcting these errors, and either paying the debts or forwarding the moneys owed into dues, the land still had more money in its coffers than what was on the ledger. These entries into the credit column are to correct for the overages and get the ledger balanced.

Additionally, the land maintains a se per ate fund for the running of our premiere event, the War of the Darkshore. At the end of the event, the Darkshore fund has $1670.60 available as of this audit.

The War of the Darkshore XIII

This year our annual War of the Darkshore followed a more grisly theme. Regent Lord Chef Ted Prime the Goblin pitted monsters versus heroes at the beautiful San Lorenzo Park in King City. This year we had 116 sign-ins with all lands in Westmarch represented, and out-of-state-visitors including his Royal Pale-ness Emperor Hannibal and Sir Kezgar of the Iron Mountains. Events included melee and archery tournaments, castle battle-games, a Kid's Quest hosted by Thor's Refuge's own Bear-Bear, and a bardic and costume contest.

At court on Saturday night, we bore witness to the belting of Dame Gwendair Tryst of Wavehaven, and we as a land could not be any happier for her.

Here are a few photographs from Darkshore, courtesy of Kimberly Terril from the Barony of the Seven Sleeping Dragons.

Where there's a dog skull...

There's Jugging!

Defending the castle ...

Against the horde!

Ditching Thursday.
