To the BoD of Dragonspine,

For your consideration, I once again present to you here the complete package of auditable data from the Principality of Westmarch and her sub-lands. This time around I asked my fellow Prime Ministers to do their best in combining their auditable information into easily digested packets. To my delight, several of the lands took up this challenge and submitted packets containing all of their data.

According to our Corpora, the Board of Directors of Westmarch are responsible for doing our own audit of our lands in addition to the Dragonspine audit. With that goal in mind, I once again combed through the data from our lands and organized some tables. You will find these summary tables under each land's name. To save space (and paper) I have omitted the usual scans of ledgers, bank statements, etc. for all the lands except Westmarch herself. Instead I will be giving a summary of the information in my own words and directing you to the appropriate audit packet for a given land.

In regards to our independent audit of our lands, I am proud to say that we completed the audit during our BoD meeting on February 8th, 2009. We gave our lands the following ratings based on the data reported:

Falcon's Reach/Thor's Refuge:	Excellent
Crimson Wood:	Excellent
Wyvern's Spur:	Excellent
Ashen Spire:	Exempt (Not a part of DS at audit)
Wavehaven:	Excellent
Seven Sleeping Dragons:	Pass (Missing financial ledger)
Crimson Sanctum:	Excellent
Siar Geata:	Excellent

The submission from Siar Geata was late so the BoD faced a similiar situation to that of the DS BoD two audits prior. After a lengthy discussion, we agreed on giving Siar Geata an "Excellent" rating despite the tardiness, mainly due to this being our first actual audit, and agreed to clarify our future policy for late submissions. Following in the DS BoD footsteps, we will only garauntee a "Pass" rating to any late submissions, but agreed to leave ourselves some flexibility if some extenuating circumstances exist.

Now without further ado, I give you Prince Sir Euric Bloodstone and his thoughts on how our Principality and our lands have fared the past six months in his own words.

Prime Minister Fiks of Westmarch

The Words of the Prince

This is an exciting time for Westmarch: there has been some decent growth. Siar Geata continues to grow numbers and was promoted to Barony after last audit. They are continuing to use Ren Faires and have even been invited to Pirates Faires which they utilize as great tools for recruitment, getting our name out there, and showing the community that they are a strong presence.

Siar Geata has such an amazing presence at Ren Faire that the Queen asked Amtgard to hold a tournament to crown a champion for her to be at the October/November 2009 Ren Faire. That is a huge deal for a Ren Faire.

Crimson Sanctum hosted the Invasion which was great for bringing over 80 North and South California Amtgardians together. Sanctumites also held a great fundraiser that produced Duchy like funds for their Shire.

Seven Sleeping Dragons was promoted to Barony and continues to do demonstrations to bolster their ranks. Their land will be the host site for the April Qualifications for the Principality.

Wavehaven is under the strong Leadership of California's first knight and did an excellent job of hosting Westmarch qualifications. Wavehaven will be the home of our upcoming Midreign extravaganza including Weaponmaster and Dragonmaster tournaments.

Ashen Spire is close to being an official Dragonspine and Westmarch land. The Westmarch Tutorial for Fighters was hosted there and Texas did a great job of coordinating the event and giving a taste of what Sword Knight Boot Camp could bring to Westmarch if the bid Texas and I are spearheading to land it here in 2010 is successful. DundraCon, which gave birth to Ashen Spire is upcoming and hopefully will be another successful foray for us.

Crimson Wood is holding some demonstration days and elevating their player count through this method. Crimson Wood has shown their support of Westmarch by joining the Caamtgard forums.

Wyvern's Spur is trying some new recruiting ideas lead by their monarch. They participated in Kite day and had their annual Super bowl Juggling day.

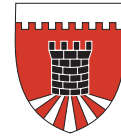

Thor's Refuge has been experiencing some great growth with the use of Meetup groups and has sponsored food at Westmarch Tutorial for fighters.

Texas and 2.0 have done a great job on their series of Good Versus Evil Quests at each core land that have drawn strong numbers each month.

All in all, even with fighting through the winter this has been a prosperous and fun 6 months for the denizens of Westmarch.

Prince Sir Euric Bloodstone of Westmarch

Financial Information

The Duchy ended the year of 2008 with $1605.44 in her coffers according to the ledgers. Interestingly enough, the bank statement from December declared the Duchy is in possession of $1780.93. So while some more attention is required to resolve this conflict, either way the Duchy is well over the $100 requirement.
