

A Message from the Baroness

To whom it may concern,

During this reign, we have seen our numbers jump quite significantly, to about 25-30 people a week on average. With such a large influx of new players, we have tried hard to integrate them into Amtgard, encouraging them to make garb and weapons. We have tried hard to make our new fellows welcome and to help them conform to the highest standards of Amtgard play.

Our recruiting activities have included a demo at San Luis High School, where we held a mini-iron man tournament with a prize of two short swords. We also had a booth at the Cal Poly (the college we are affiliated with) open house, where we participated in a quest with several other campus clubs. Finally, we held a small demonstration at PolyCon, a local gaming convention. We also have planned another demo at San Luis High School in the fall with their LAN party club, and at the Cal Poly Week of Welcome for incoming freshmen.

We held a weapon making day on the field on June 11th, and continued our promise of materials for one free short sword for all dues-paid members. Many of our new members brought someone to the field to make a weapon, and those members have been bringing weapons to the field on a regular basis.

Arts and Science afternoons were continued, with two sessions at the University Union on Cal Poly's campus. We helped several members make their first garb, as well as weapons, and provided a sewing machine for any to use. We have plans to continue this, with two more A&S afternoons planned during this reign.

Cal Poly's club funding of $500 was useful during this reign. Not only were we able to fund free tunics and sword making materials for every dues paid member, but we were also able to fund two meals for 150 people at Darkshore this year. In addition, we rented space at Santa Rosa Park to host the Westmarch Crown Qualifications. The club had $.26 left over after funding all of our activities from September to June this year. We plan to apply for those funds again when school starts in the Fall.

Sincerely,

Lady Leah, Baroness of Seven Sleeping Dragons

A Message from the Prime Minister

To whom it may concern,

My most recent reign has been marked by a sharp uptick in attendance, which is referenced several times in the attached documentation. This, along with the increasing number of younger players, has at least provided some variety in my duties. We are doing well financially, our numbers are excellent, and all we are really missing is a method to inspire some of our new members to enter office.

Any questions our comments about this latest audit package can be directed to me by email, or by private message on the caamtgard.com boards.

Sincerely,

Griffin Köford, Prime Minister of Seven Sleeping Dragons

List of current officers

Monarch: Lady Page Leah

Regent: Lady Faye

Prime Minister: Man-at-Arms Griffin

Champion: Vacant (See Crown Election Results)

Results of most recent crown elections

As detailed in this post on the Westmarch boards, the results of our latest round of elections were as follows:

Baroness:

Leah: 8 Confidence

Regent:

There will be a special Althing next week to consider Lady Faye for the position of Regent Pro-Tem, as she is our only mostly qualified candidate.

Champion:

Reptar: 7 Confidence, 1 No Confidence

GMR:

None

It should be noted that the subsequent Althing unanimously approved Lady Faye for the position of Regent, and that issues with housing forced our Champion-elect, Reptar, to move out of the area. The duties of Champion have been nobly shouldered by Baron Deimos, the Champion of Westmarch.

List of current dues-paid members

We have recently been blessed with an upsurge in membership, and a corresponding uptick in the number of people wishing to pay dues - often for multiple terms at a time. Very few of the people on this list are voting qualified, many are underage, and many more payed as family groups.

Note that entries marked with an asterisk after their persona name payed as a family.

Therefore, our currently dues-paid (though not necessarily voting-qualified) members comprise the following list:

Dave I. (Deimos)
Jessica F. (Leah)
Mike P. (Cronin)
Nate W. (Nate)
Daniel N. (Tycus)
