We're proud to announce Project Homeowner, a statewide initiative designed to keep California homeowners in their homes. Led by the California Department of Real Estate and sponsored by Chase, events across California will provide information and resources to help homeowners stay in their homes. By attending one of these events, you'll have unprecedented access to advisors, counselors, and lenders from both public and private organizations. For more information or to register, visit www.ProjectHomeCA.com.

We'll be starting the change from WaMu to Chase in the next few months; you'll start to see the Chase name in your branch, on your statements, online, and in ads. Rest assured that the reasons you chose us as your bank will remain unchanged: your Free checking will remain free, and you'll get the same great service from our friendly bankers.

What will change is even more exciting: by the end of 2009, we'll bring you more checking and savings choices, more debit rewards programs including major airlines, more payment options online, and even refreshed branches. It's our way of saying hello!
