To the Board of Directors of Westmarch

Siar Geata has had its ups and downs this last term, but we are in the stages and motions to build our numbers back up.

I made us business cards, which have been very effective, to pass out when you find yourself talking to someone about Amtgard. They're easier to keep on hand than a flyer is, and people are more likely to hold onto them until they can either: A, get to a computer to check us out, or B, come out to see us at our meetings. I am also in the process of building our website, since our last webmaster is long gone and with them the old site.

As you'll see by our funds ledger, we are also in the process of rebuilding our encampment site, for other recruiting events such as Renaissance Faires (has been one of our best recruitment sites).

This is isn't included in the audit, but I would like to add that in the last three weeks we have gotten a lot of new additions and a return of some old folks who wandered away a few months ago. I think with our current leadership team we should have an awesome Spring 2012, heck, a full-on awesome 2012 year for Siar Geata.

Signed,

Grace Winters

Prime Minister of Siar Geata

P.S.: My monarch/Baron, Scoot, has already contacted you on the boards stating that we do not bring in enough funds on a regular basis to be able to keep a bank account. Also, with current bank fees, it would cost us more to keep a bank account than to not.
