To the Board of Directors of Westmarch

Good evening and well met!

Likely the lot of you are annoyed at the sound of my voice by the time you get around to reading my land's audit report. Fortunately this is typed, not read aloud, so you get spared having to listen to this, at least.

The past six months have continued to be rough on our old land. The number of people we can entice out to the field continues to slowly shrink. Attrition is the only constant in the universe, and it is felt keenly here in Wavehaven. Sadly, I really only have myself to blame for the majority of the problems. Unable to effectively balance my attentions, my land's recruitment efforts have been neglected. I have had some ideas, some likely good, even—but I regret that I have not been able to put some of them into practice.

One difficulty we were able to overcome was the awful banking situation forced upon us by ugly banking fees from our old bank. The task was no easy one, as our moneys got tied up in a check that wouldn't clear for several weeks and banks that wouldn't accept our business thanks to our iffy corporate status. The latter still needs redressing, and I hope we'll be able to finally put that bad business behind us after Westmarch gets settled in as Kingdom. For now though, our money is safely ensconced inside Well Fargo's generous databases. All we are missing are two month's worth of bank statements due to the various troubles.

I am proud to say that there has been a Wavehaven presence at every official Westmarch Day that we have held starting in September. Even if that presence was merely me, our land was represented every month. Thankfully I have not been the only one to brave the long drives to most of the events. My core group of players have had my back in regards to showing the rest of Westmarch that we're still around, and we can still swing stick with the best of them. I can't think of a person who comes out regularly who hasn't been at one of the Westmarch Days.

Another aspect of the past six months that brings some light to my dark heart: I have a full compliment of officers standing with me. Mikezilla and Drake once again played Musical Offices, volunteering to be Champion and GMR respectively. And we are gladdened to have Athena join us as our Ducal Regent. Together, the three of them are coming up with ideas to improve our Amtgard experiences here in Santa Cruz. Additionally, all of us are preparing to tackle Darkshore with our selected Autocrat team.

In closing, our land may appear weakened, but I will claim that our heart still beats strongly, and if anyone were to cut us, we will bleed Amtgard.

Signed,

Baron Fiks, Duke of Wavehaven
